

A large, chaotic pile of trash and debris, including plastic, metal, and wood, dominates the lower two-thirds of the image. Atop this pile, three simple wooden crosses are planted, standing against a clear blue sky with a few wispy clouds. The scene is a powerful visual metaphor for finding redemption or restoration in a state of complete disorder.

RESTORED

FINDING REDEMPTION
IN OUR MESS